

Prof. Johan Janse Van Rensburg

Introducing Prof. Johan Janse van Rensburg – Emeritus Professor, Practical Theology, University of the Free State

ABBREVIATED CURRICULUM VITAE

Johan Janse van Rensburg, emeritus professor in Practical Theology at the University of the Free State, is a keen academic with three doctors degrees. He has written 9 books and more than fifty scientific and semi-scientific articles. His field of research includes Pastoral counselling, homiletics, research methodology, Christian Leadership and the paradigmatic structuring of Practical Theology. He particularly emphasized the importance of the covenant in pastoral care.

Currently he is a minister of the English Dutch Reformed Church Andrew Murray in Bloemfontein and acts as assessor of the Free State Moderamen of the Church.

Furthermore, he is an accomplished artist, having published eight calendars with wildlife and has held many exhibitions in South Africa and abroad.